DOLLAR DEMOCRAT
—AND—
WEEKLY DEMOCRAT

DAILY DEMOCRAT..... $00
DAILY DEMOCRAT to the Country..... 500
THE DOLLAR DEMOCRAT..... 100
THE WEEKLY DEMOCRAT..... 200

The several issues of the DEMOCRAT are edited and published by JOHN H. HARNEY and W. E. HUGHES; employ a corps of Assistants, Reporters, and Correspondents; and it shall be the earnest endeavor of the proprietors to render the paper acceptable to all classes of readers, by making its columns the medium of every description of news—local, general, and miscellaneous—together with everything of interest in all the departments of trade or business.

The DEMOCRAT was commenced, under the auspices of the Democracy of Louisville, in July, 1844, and it has earnestly and consistently advocated the great truths of that party throughout its entire history—comprising nothing and yielding nothing to any of the numerous factions that have within that period presented themselves against it. The WEEKLY DEMOCRAT attained a circulation in 1856 never before attained in the Democratic party south of the Ohio river, west of the Mountains; and our DAILY finds its way through the various towns to almost every point within the reach of daily communication with our city. We are more than ever to make it acceptable, not only to the friends of "Popular Sovereignty" and "Equal Rights," but to every interest and every class of readers. Its correspondence is a decided feature, and furnishes a large amount of news and other important matter which otherwise we could not obtain. Every question, political or otherwise, of general interest, is thoroughly discussed in our Editorial Columns, and nothing of moment shall escape our readers. Beside, the Paper will, at all times, embrace a full variety of "READING FOR THE MILLION," consisting of Poetry, original and selected Sketches, Miscellany, and a full variety designed to meet every taste.

The Daily Democrat

will contain an epistle of all that is going on in the city and country, of local or general importance. It will furnish a reliable daily summary, gleaned from the mails, gathered from the city, and received by telegraph from all the leading points. It gives daily statements of the market in leading articles, and once every week furnishes a careful and complete review of the market.

It will also furnish in its business columns the advertisements of the most energetic merchants, manufacturers, and tradesmen of Louisville, together with such notices as we shall from time to time make of them. In every essential we intend to adapt the DAILY DEMOCRAT to the wants of the city and its inhabitants. Its business columns shall give a correct impression of the general character of trade in Louisville; and we shall at all times keep our readers thoroughly posted in the events of the commercial world.

The Dollar Democrat

is made up from a selection of matter, and transferred to its pages from the columns of our DAILY. It is published every Saturday, at one dollar per year, always in advance. Clues of fifty subscribers, to one address, EIGHTY CENTS each.

The Louisville Weekly Democrat is the largest and most complete paper in the Democratic party in the West. In its ample columns we design to keep our readers thoroughly posted in politics, the news, and in all matters of agricultural and mechanical interest, the commerce of the country, and a full variety of miscellaneous reading for the heterogeneous public. In all respects it shall be to its readers a welcome visitor and a useful companion. To Club it is sent as follows:

For 1 copy, one year, in advance..... $2 00
For 2 copies, do, do..... 30 00
For 3 copies, do, do..... 55 00
For 4 copies, do, do..... 75 00

A single copy of the Weekly Democrat will be sent to our post-office, where there are ten subscribers, at $1 00, in advance.

It is needless for us to say that the "DEMOCRAT" will continue in politics as heretofore—Democratic. Since the issue of its first number it has continued to do battle against the combined powers of the opposition—under the lead of whatsoever party it presented itself. It will always maintain the doctrine of State Rights and Popular Sovereignty as essential features of our free institutions; and, as faithful sons, we shall warn our friends of the approach of the enemy under whatever flag it is marshaled in the contest.

The great political battle of 1860 will bring together in solid column the friends of the South, of the Union, and of Equal Rights—the advocates of POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY against the conglomerate mass of Abolitionists and Disunionists in the North, who are preaching negro equality, and opposing the extension of slave territory and the admission of slave States.

Let our friends throughout the South and the Union come to our support, and aid us in extending the circulation, until the Democratic shall penetrate to every household where the liberties of the people are respected, and the rights of Popular Sovereignty maintained.

To Business Men Generally.

Those who have established themselves successfully in business should advertise to retain that position.

Those who are but commencing business should advertise to successfully establish themselves.

Discreet and judicious advertising is the very life of business. Those who neglect to avail themselves of its advantages injure themselves in trade, and consequently buster the reward on others who advertise.

Water Works.

It is worth a ride to see the location of our Water works and the energy with which they are pushed forward. The site commands the most beautiful prospect to be found in this vicinity, or perhaps along the river anywhere. The noble stream is in view for twelve miles. The Company own an extent of land that will always secure the work from intrusion. The location is susceptible of embellishment, to an unlimited extent.

About three hundred hands are employed in laying the thirty-inch pipe from the engine house to the reservoir, and in laying the foundation of both these works. The finances are unembarrassed, and all obstacles to the progress of the work are surmounted. It is going ahead with most gratifying success.

The Company are sharp about promises as to finishing the work at too early a day. The best security for its early completion is the vigor and energy with which it is now prosecuted. The value of these works can hardly be over-estimated. After the enjoyment of its advantages a few months, our people will wonder that they have been so long without them. In addition to the substantial utility, the site will afford, at small expense, the hand-somest pleasure ground to be found anywhere in the vicinity of Louisville.

17 An attorney for a woman who was sued for divorce, lately, in Michigan, after making out sundry bad acts of the husband, brought him over to the jury, observing, "that he was too mean-looking for any woman to be tied to." We didn't learn how the case came out; but it reminds us of a case in the Kentucky Senate, in the days when the Legislature used to separate man and wife to order. The Committee on Divorce was called, and several cases were disposed of without ceremony. At length a Senator, who was a good deal of a wag, thought the Senate was going rather too fast. He remarked, in a low tone, that he didn't know what might be divorced before he knew it, if they kept on; so he got up and objected to passing a bill, whereby a woman was to be released from her husband. He had had a showing before the committee, and he was delighted to hear a Senator object; he flattered himself he had found a friend. He hunted up the Senator, and annoyed him with what his supposed friend had found out—a false story of his wrongs. Next day the case came up in order, the husband sat behind a post at the back of his friend, the Senator, ready to prompt him in his duty. The President of the Senate looked toward the Senator who had objected the day before, expecting a defense of the husband.

The wag rose very solemnly: "Mr. President, I object to the disposal of this case yesterday; I know nothing about the parties; the husband all agitated at the side of the post; but I have since seen the husband. There he is, behind the post. He is too mean-looking for any woman to live with. I withdraw my objection."

Through the divorce went, and away went the unfortunate husband.

18 We re-publish below what Douglas said at Freeport, on the power of a territorial legislature, to exclude slavery.

We do so because a garbled extract, made by the unscrupulous Black Republican conductors of the Washington Union, has been published in this State.

"The next question propounded to me by Mr. Lincoln is, can the people of a territory, in any lawful way, exclude slavery? We do so because a garbled extract, made by the unscrupulous Black Republican conductors of the Washington Union, has been published in this State.

DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
Harney, Hughes & Co.,
EAST SIDE OF THIRD STREET,
BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON.

FRIDAY..... SEPT. 24, 1858.

EMINENCE ITEMS.—The fair at Eminent on Wednesday and Thursday, was a fairly interesting occasion for an inland town. The exhibition of cattle and horses was reported as only tolerable. The best stock was offered: A steer some two years old, said to weigh 2,000, one three years old, 2,500, and a four year old, fine, superlative looking fellow, 3,000. The great competition was between the Blue Grass and the Penny Royal stock. The show of horses was nothing to brag of; we told that horses and colts were ginsenged; what say the farmers of this? The show of milch cows and sheep was good, while that of mules was only tolerable.

An elopement that occurred on Wednesday, was the occasion of much talk. A young lady named Young, left on the cars with her cousin, and at Jéricho met the loving swain, named Head, and the knot was tied, in despite of the forbidding father. When the cousin returned without the young lady, the father, as may well be supposed, was very wroth, mounted on a swift steed, and put off at a break-neck speed, but all too late, the happy couple were one. Another elopement was talked of, but through some mischance failed to take place.

The number of ladies present was large, and their appearance brilliant; beautiful Kentucky girls, appear like roses, eyes bright and sparkling, teeth perfect and white, dresses neat, but not gaudy.

Three of the sheep on exhibition were sold at low rates; one Cotswold 2 years old, brought $12; two of the same stock, 1 year old, brought the same figure.

Real estate buyers will bear in mind Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale, this afternoon, at three and a half o'clock, of eight and a half acres of land adjoining the city, near the Bardstown turnpike, and just beyond the Beargrass bridge. This is valuable property, and, as we learn, is to be sold without reserve, for whatever it will bring. A chance is here offered for a good investment. Besides the desirability of this property for building lots, it has a stone quarry on its great value.

Mr. Spencer has a sale of furniture this morning, at ten o'clock, to which we also call attention. See advertisement.

THE GREAT AMERICAN ART OF SWINDLING.—WILD, BALKY, KICKING, AND NERVOUS HORSES. Mr. O. H. F. Fancher is truly the original teacher of this art. He is now in this city, and proposes to exhibit his system of taming; also, to teach the same to such persons as may call on him. He can be found at the United States Hotel. A public exhibition will be given every night this week, at the corner of Fifth and Broadway, at 7 o'clock. Admission—Fifty cents. He will perform on any horse the citizens will select. ditto

LADIES' OYSTER SALOON.—We invite the attention of the ladies of the city and country to the advertisement of Mr. Charles E. Stevens, he has just opened and fitted up in neat style, his ladies' oyster saloon and restaurant, where ladies can have served up at all hours of the day and evening, oysters, game, coffee, French tea, &c. Mr. S. keeps his saloon neat and in the best of order, and ladies can rest assured that anything they wish will be served up in fine style at short notice.

COUNTERFEITS ARRESTED.—Officers Bligh and Powell yesterday got information that there were some two or three of the bogus gentrified who were busily engaged in passing counterfeit notes of the National Bank of Cleveland. They learned that they had attempted to pass one of these notes on Andrew Kreil. They immediately started in search of them, and succeeded in arresting the whole party. The gave their names as Wm. Duerbach, who says he is a detective police from Iowa, Wm. Bower, and Cornelius Herring. They were searched, and a large amount of the bogus money was found in their possession.

WE ARE REQUESTED to state that the New Albany and Portland ferry-boats will run in connection with the cars of the Louisville and Portland railroad until 12 o'clock at night.—An omnibus at Portland will connect travel with the boats without extra charge during the present low stage of water. ditto

QUEENSWARE.—We ask the attention of country and city merchants to the advertisement of Messrs. A. Jaeger & Co., which will be found in our advertising columns, wholesale dealers in, and importers of, China, Glass, and Queensware. They also have a large stock of beautiful China gilt breakfast, dinner and tea sets; Japanned, Britannia and silver plated ware; plain and neatly decorated toilet sets, etc. etc. all of their own importation. Country merchants buying goods in this market, will do well to call at their establishment and examine their every style of China, glass, earthen and Queensware. From their facilities, we should judge that they can sell their goods a shade lower than any house in the city. In their line, our word it, they are honorable gentlemen, proprietors and salesmen, and will give good bargains to all who give them their patronage.

MILLINERY Goods.—See the advertisement of Mrs. C. Selliger, she has now in store all the new styles of fall and winter millinery, bonnets, ribbons, and everything in that line. Mrs. S. is a clever lady and sells her goods cheap as the cheapest.

DAILY MARKETS.—It will be seen by an advertiser elsewhere, that Mad. E. Michot, Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson, has received her fall stock of fine millinery goods, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, etc. She has taken the greatest care in selecting her goods, which cannot be surpassed in style and elegance in the city.

IMPORTED CIGARS.—The place to buy every brand of the finest imported cigars, smoking tobacco, and the finest brands of Virginia chewing tobacco, is Charles Melville's, No. 40 Fourth street, under the National Hotel. He also keeps every description of pipes, cigar cases, pocket books, &c. &c. By all means, go there for a good cigar.

EMBROIDERY AND LACE GOODS.—Our lady readers will do well to read the advertisement of C. F. Rauchfuss, in another part of this paper, importer of, and dealer in, embroideries, laces, and fancy goods, gentlemen's fine shirt-bosoms, &c. &c. His stock is very large and he sells his goods as low as any other house in the city. He has one of the most beautiful French embroidered table covers we have ever seen; it is, in fact, most splendid, and also an embroidered bridal veil, which is well worth an inspection by our lady friends. Those who want goods in his line will do well to call at his store, No. 99 Fourth street. He is a courteous gentleman, and a fair dealer.

CONTESTED ELECTION.—The contested election is set for to-day, and it is generally thought will come to trial.

There was not a single case of drunkenness or disorderly conduct before Judge Johnson yesterday.

River Intelligence.

RIVER AND WEATHER.—The river is still receding slowly, with about 20 inches water in the canal by the mark last evening.

The Mariner has taken the place of the Superior, and not the Maroma, as we stated yesterday.

BUSINESS.—The Hastings, from Cincinnati, brought 21 bales chair stuff; 31 bars and 5 bales iron; 20 bales sheeting; 22 kg beer; 49 cartons o. v.; 350 bales paper; 25 bales whisky; 25 barrels and shovels; 23 bales glass; 25 demijohns; 50 lbs tea; 84 kg soda; 200 and 200 lbs goods.

The Uprise, from Carrollton, brought 42 bales wheat; 124 bales flour; 12 bales iron; 1 hd tobacco; 24 bales hay; 50,000 shingles, and 48 bags lime.

TRADING DAY.—Next Monday promises to be the most exciting and interesting day we have had in or near this city for many months. It is the day set apart for the trotting matches at the fair grounds, and for the exhibition of trotting horses for premiums. Already there are in the city thirty horses of the best stock in the United States, and others are coming. The Southwestern Agricultural and Mechanical Association is still in debt, and one object of the show on Monday is to replenish the treasury, and aid in extinguishing the indebtedness. We have no doubt our citizens will respond heartily to the desires of the Association, and calculate upon finding at the grounds, on Monday, such a crowd as has never yet been present.

THEATER.—We do not like the character of the Stranger, but Mr. Murdoch presented it in fine style last evening. His Vapid, however, in the Dramatist was a most capital character—full of humor, sparkling with wit, and running over with good nature. Some of the other characters were admirably sustained; and, altogether, the comedy has met with a more decided success than any other piece of Mr. Murdoch has produced. This evening he takes his benefit, and produces the great tragedy of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. Secure your seats as there will be a crowd.

STATE FAIR.—A man and woman were arrested yesterday for fighting. Liquor the cause.

BURGLARS ARRESTED.—Two light, slippery, and sticky-fingered gentlemen were arrested yesterday, charged with having broken into a house in Cincinnati and stolen a large amount of money, and some very valuable goods.

THEATRE.—There were very few arrests for drunkenness yesterday.

STATE FAIR.—No omission Supplied.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SHOW.—LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23, 1858.

THE FOLLOWING OMMISSIONS, to which attention has but recently been called, have been omitted in the Democrat, viz:

Class D, page 12, before Sweepstakes.

Also, in the Democrat, insert the following:

FOR GENERAL USE. Stallions, 3 years old and upwards; Mares, 3 years old and upwards;

PONIES. Ponies, without reference to age or sex, ridden by a boy.

For some misapprehension exists with reference to the price of horses, we beg to inform you that for the privilege of competing for EITHER OR ALL of any ONE CLASS, the entry fee is $10, and the premium is under $5, in amount, when the charge is $10.

WILL COMMENCE THE SECOND and final sale of LOTS in this growing and most interesting

YOUNG CITY.

The Trustees in this city, have secured a right to sell all the property that at no point in the river can be had for less than $100 per foot.

KENTUCKY CITY is located on the east bank of the Mississippi, the nearest head land (or above) to the mouth of the Ohio river, and is the most important commercial and manufacturing point in the state.

The Hudson and Mariner at Long Lick.

There is but little freight offering to steamers, owing, no doubt, to the fears entertained by shippers in relation to low water navigation, for it is generally conceded that if the river was in a good condition, a heavy tonnage would be sent down, and the complement of freight to all points at present shipping.

The tonnage now in port is light, being at the levee, last evening, only the Keel, Hudson and Red Wing are doing nothing.

The St. Louis Democrat, of the 23d, has the following:

The river is falling rapidly here. The Illinois is again on the decline, and the other rivers are all falling. The weather is extremely warm, and heavy showers are anticipated. Business continues somewhat brisk with an improving tendency.

THE Democrat publishes the following:

YOUNG CITY.

The Trustees in this city, have secured a right to sell all the property that at no point in the river can be had for less than $100 per foot.

KENTUCKY CITY is located on the east bank of the Mississippi, the nearest head land (or above) to the mouth of the Ohio river, and is the most important commercial and manufacturing point in the state.

The Hudson and Mariner at Long Lick.

There is but little freight offering to steamers, owing, no doubt, to the fears entertained by shippers in relation to low water navigation, for it is generally conceded that if the river was in a good condition, a heavy tonnage would be sent down, and the complement of freight to all points at present shipping.

The tonnage now in port is light, being at the levee, last evening, only the Keel, Hudson and Red Wing are doing nothing.

The St. Louis Democrat, of the 23d, has the following:

PIANOS TUNED.
